Subject: Conflict Minerals

Based on the information provided by our material suppliers, Maury Microwave Corporation confirms that to the best of our knowledge, the materials used in our products do not contain metals originating from conflict areas. More specifically, it is the policy of our suppliers to not use minerals from conflict areas, including the region of the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Maury Microwave Corporation is aware of the concerns surrounding the possible use of conflict metals in electronic products. It is our policy to ensure to the highest degree possible that our approved suppliers do not use such materials, metals, or components in the products provided to us.

This information has been furnished in good faith in order to meet the needs of our customers. No warranty or guarantee is made with respect to this data and Maury Microwave Corporation assumes no liability for any damages resulting from errors or omissions to this information.

Sincerely,

Greg Maury
President & CEO
